ABOUT
THE SIKH EDUCATION SOCIETY
AND
GURUNANK COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
NAGPUR

The Sikh Education Society, Nagpur was established in 1956 with a mission to provide quality education to the masses in the region. Since last more than 50 years it is serving the society with complete dedication and devotion. The best thing about the society is that it is a nonprofit organization. The money that is earned by its educational institutions is spent on their development only. This is the secret of fast pace of the development of Gurunank College of Pharmacy i.e. running under its aegis.

Gurunank Technical Institute (Diploma in Pharmacy) was established in the year of 1983. The main aim of starting this D. Pharm course was to promote the self employment among the youth and hence to help in reducing unemployment. In the subsequent years graduate (2004), postgraduate (2009) and doctorate (2015) courses in the pharmacy were also introduced.

The college is situated on 10 acres of land away from the hustle & bustle of busy city traffic, in the peaceful area of Nari which is very well within the Nagpur city limits near to Pili river. A spacious, well planned, well lit, well ventilated building surrounded by the lush green campus is many neighbour's envy. The college has been successful in imparting quality education in pharmacy at all levels throughout these years and it is also providing a well equipped platform to carry out the research activities that are recognized at both national and international levels.

This Seminar is organized to learn directly from industry's leading experts and hear unique case study sessions and take-home examples into the latest technologies and methods in improving drug release mechanisms.

Poor bioavailability is a major reason for compounds to fail in preclinical development. Due to the complex nature of a multitude of existing as well as newly discovered active ingredients, solubility and bioavailability problems are inherent in the pharmaceutical industry causing major delays in drug development. Fortunately, several novel technologies can now be deployed to address solubility and bioavailability issues. This seminar will provide insight into innovations in Solubility and Bioavailability Enhancement: Option and Opportunities.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Gurunanak college of pharmacy Nagpur was established in 2004 under the aegis of The Sikh education society Nagpur, recognized by AICTE and affiliated to RTM Nagpur university Nagpur. The college has completed 14 years of dedicated and excellent service in the field of technical education. The college offers UG, PG and pharmacy. The college is well known for its technical excellence, modern facilities, record of performance with excellent results and enterprising students. The college is NAAC accredited as well as received NIRF ranking.

ABOUT THE THEME

Use of computational techniques in drug discovery and development process is rapidly gaining in popularity, implementation and appreciation. There is an ever growing effort to apply computational power to the combined chemical and biological space in order to streamline drug discovery, design, development and optimization. In biomedical arena, computer-aided or in silico design is being utilized to expedite and facilitate hit identification, hit-to-lead selection, optimize the absorption, distribution, metabolism, excretion and toxicity profile and avoid safety issues. Regulatory agencies as well as pharmaceutical industry are actively involved in development of computational tools that will improve effectiveness and efficiency of drug discovery and development process, decrease use of animals, and increase predictability. It is expected that the power of Computer aided drug design and development (CADD) will grow as the technology continues to evolve. CADD is being utilized to identify hits (active drug candidates), select leads (most likely candidates for further evaluation), and optimize leads i.e. transform biologically active compounds into suitable drugs by improving their physico-chemical, pharmaceutical, ADMET/PK (pharmacokinetic) properties. Therefore faculties of academic institutions as well as students are required to be updated and trained. It should be apparent that CADD has an immense potential in today's drug development era and knowledge as well as importance of computers in drug development process. Thus exposure and training to such recent advances to faculty and students can fulfill the requirements of Pharmaceutical industries.

Dear Prof. Dr. Nidhi Sapkal,
 Greetings for the day!
 I hope you are doing well. I know you from SKB college of Pharmacy, as you taught me when I was there for a short time in year 2004. I would like to take this chance to introduce myself, I am Dr. Prajwal Nandekar, a Scientist working at Schrodinger, Inc., after completing 4 years of postdoc at Heidelberg University, Germany. I received PhD in Phramacoinformatics from NIPER Mohali. As computer-aided drug design (CADD) is included in Pharma syllabus, it might be interesting to know more about Schrodinger software and its use in our research projects. I thought I will communicate with you regarding the software and other scientific queries. Schrodinger software is widely used in academia and industries for molecular modeling and computer-aided drug design (CADD). <https://www.schrodinger.com>.
 I would like to explore the prospect of conducting a seminar (for 1 hour on any single day) at your department in the month of September or October. Please let me know any day between 28 Sept to 10 Oct., as per your convenience. The seminar will cover the basics of computer-aided drug design methodologies, chemoinformatics, drug discovery process and challenges, Schrodinger's success stories, and software handling. I will be happy to discuss scientific queries/prospects of CADD in Pharma industries. Please let us know if you'd be interested in discussing this further.
 Looking forward to hearing from you.
 Thanks and best regards,

Dear Dr. Prajwal,
 It was indeed a pleasure to receive a mail from you.
 I was glad to know that we have met before and it will be a pleasure to see you again in our college. Please let me know if 8th, 9th or 10th October is convenient to you.
 I will also invite students and faculty members from other colleges for this seminar.
 Looking forward to see you...
 Regards,
 Nidhi Sapkal

Be aware from money seeker

Scammers know that finding a job can be tough. To trick people looking for honest work, scammers advertise where real employers and job placement firms do. They also make upbeat promises about your chances of employment, and virtually all of them ask you to pay them for their services before you get a job. But the promise of a job isn't the same thing as a job. If you have to pay for the promise, it's likely a scam.

Signs of a Job Scam

1. You need to pay to get the job
2. You need to supply your credit card or bank account information
3. Candidates are asked to deposit registration fees via wallet or bank transfers
4. Check domain for email ID

*Please note : Good organization don't take any type of favour for providing employment from any one
