Dear Prof. Dr. Nidhi Sapkal,
Greetings for the day!

I hope you are doing well. I know you from SKB college of Pharmacy, as you taught me when I was there for a short time in year 2004. I would like to take this chance to introduce myself, I am Dr. Prajwal Nandekar, a Scientist working at Schrodinger, Inc., after completing 4 years of postdoc at Heidelberg University, Germany. I received PhD in Phramacoinformatics from NIPER Mohali. As computer-aided drug design (CADD) is included in Pharma syllabus, it might be interesting to know more about Schrodinger software and its use in our research projects. I thought I will communicate with you regarding the software and other scientific queries. Schrodinger software is widely used in academia and industries for molecular modeling and computer-aided drug design (CADD). <https://www.schrodinger.com>.

I would like to explore the prospect of conducting a seminar (for 1 hour on any single day) at your department in the month of September or October. Please let me know any day between 28 Sept to 10 Oct., as per your convenience. The seminar will cover the basics of computer-aided drug design methodologies, chemoinformatics, drug discovery process and challenges, Schrodinger's success stories, and software handling. I will be happy to discuss scientific queries/prospects of CADD in Pharma industries. Please let us know if you'd be interested in discussing this further. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Thanks and best regards,

Dear Dr. Prajwal,

It was indeed a pleasure to receive a mail from you.

I was glad to know that we have met before and it will be a pleasure to see you again in our college. Please let me know if 8th, 9th or 10th October is convenient to you.

I will also invite students and faculty members from other colleges for this seminar.

Looking forward to see you...

WORKSHOP ON COMMUNICATION SKILLS , PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT & INTERVIEW SKILLS

31 December 2018

Event Report

Communication is simply the flow of information from the sender to the receiver, irrespective of whether the recipient has properly understood or not. But effective communication is the flow of information in exactly the same manner the sender intends to do so. According to Ms. Ahmad, effective communication consists of 7% words, 36% voice and 57% Body language. She divided the body into legs, torso, hands, face smile, eye contact and facial expressions and told students how they affect communication. She elaborated how personality helps in achieving success. She stated the importance of punctuality, discipline and commitment towards work and the core values and inner personality.

She elaborated on the "Interview techniques". The session was divided into various segments like "prerequisites before going for the interview", "how to dress for the interview" in which she gave students a detailed outlook what to wear from shirt colour, tie, belt to watch. A short briefing was given by her "how to prepare Resume". After attending the powerful seminar by Ms. Swaima Ahmad the students were more confident in their communication and fear of appearing for an interview definitely mitigated.

The second part of workshop was conducted by Shri Rajendra Diwe. He insisted that good communication is the key to success. In Industry how the communications can be done and its importance was elaborated by him with various examples. The importance of behaviour, mannerism and ready to learn attitude is of utmost importance and he explained how it helps in the professional growth of a person. The workshop was organised on 31st December 2018.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Gurunanak college of pharmacy Nagpur was established in 2004 under the aegis of The Sikh education society Nagpur. recognized by AICTE and affiliated to RTM Nagpur university Nagpur. The college has completed 14 years of dedicated and excellent service in the field of technical education. The college offers UG, PG and pharmacy. The college is well known for its technical excellence, modern facilities, record of performance with excellent results and enterprising students. The college is NAAC accredited as well as received NIRF ranking.

ABOUT THE THEME

Use of computational techniques in drug discovery and development process is rapidly gaining in popularity, implementation and appreciation. There is an ever growing effort to apply computational power to the combined chemical and biological space in order to streamline drug discovery, design, development and optimization. In biomedical arena, computer-aided or in silico design is being utilized to expedite and facilitate hit identification, hit-to-lead selection, optimize the absorption, distribution, metabolism, excretion and toxicity profile and avoid safety issues. Regulatory agencies as well as pharmaceutical industry are actively involved in development of computational tools that will improve effectiveness and efficiency of drug discovery and development process, decrease use of animals, and increase predictability. It is expected that the power of Computer aided drug design and development (CADD) will grow as the technology continues to evolve. CADD is being utilized to identify hits (active drug candidates), select leads (most likely candidates for further evaluation), and optimize leads i.e. transform biologically active compounds into suitable drugs by improving their physico-chemical, pharmaceutical, ADMET/PK (pharmacokinetic) properties. Therefore faculties of academic institutions as well as students are required to be updated and trained. It should be apparent that CADD has an immense potential in today's drug development era and knowledge as well as importance of computers in drug development process. Thus exposure and training to such recent advances to faculty and students can fulfill the requirements of Pharmaceutical industries.
